

You've been asked by the government if the law should be changed to allow same-sex couples to marry.

That's all.

Don't get conned by misinformation.

Legalising civil marriage for same-sex couples will have no impact on religious institutions or the school curriculum, and anyone who says otherwise is lying.

We've updated our marriage laws over the years to reflect contemporary values. This includes introducing no-fault divorce in 1975 and raising the minimum age from 16 to 18 in 1991. We're behind the rest of the developed world with marriage equality, and it's about time we catch up.

Everyone deserves a fair go. Let's make that true for every Australian.

Vote Yes for equality.

We are a loose collective of unaffiliated individuals who came together to campaign for positive change in Australia.
